

Affect vs Effect Exercise

Instructions

Place either affect or effect into the gap. As affect is a verb, in some cases you may have to change the form i.e. affected; affecting.

1. The robbery had a very bad _____ on the family.
2. The strong light has _____ my vision.
3. Rising sea levels are _____ small islands.
4. What kind of _____ do you think lowering the pass mark will have on the students?
5. We've all been _____ by the bad weather this year.
6. The visual _____ in the movie were amazing.
7. The tornado had a devastating _____ on the city.
8. My performance was _____ by my flu.
9. His flu is sure to have an _____ on his performance.
10. The plan to raise income tax will _____ the poorest in society

Answer Key

1. The robbery had a very bad effect _____ on the family.
2. The strong light has affected _____ my vision.
3. Rising sea levels are affecting _____ small islands.
4. What kind of effect _____ do you think lowering the pass mark will have on the students?
5. We've all been affected _____ by the bad weather this year.
6. The visual effects _____ in the movie were amazing.
7. The tornado had a devastating effect _____ on the city.
8. My performance was affected _____ by my flu.
9. His flu is sure to have an effect _____ on his performance.
10. The plan to raise income tax will affect _____ the poorest in society.