

Present Perfect Continuous Exercise - Affirmative

Instructions

Place the verbs in brackets into the present perfect continuous tense.

1. I _____ (help) him with his homework.
2. They _____ (drive) since this morning.
3. Jack _____ (travel) for three hours.
4. Most people _____ (arrive) on time for the show.
5. We _____ (win) every football match this season.
6. The bike's tyres _____ (lose) air.
7. My father _____ (feel) unwell this week.
8. He _____ (work) hard to increase his income recently.
9. The flowers _____ (sell) well today.
10. Our house _____ (burgle) twice since we moved in.

Answer Key

1. I have been helping _____ (help) him with his homework.
2. They have been driving _____ (drive) since this morning.
3. Jack has been travelling _____ (travel) for three hours.
4. Most people have been arriving _____ (arrive) on time for the show.
5. We have been winning _____ (win) every football match this season.
6. The bike's tyres have been losing _____ (lose) air.
7. My father has been feeling _____ (feel) unwell this week.
8. He has been working _____ (work) hard to increase his income recently.
9. The flowers have been selling _____ (sell) well today.
10. Our house has been burgled _____ (burgle) twice since we moved in.

Note: You can also have the contracted form e.g.

1. I've been helping...
2. They've been driving...
3. Jack's been travelling...

Etc.